Saint Michael's College
University of Toronto

Short-term contract educators at Saint Michael's College at the University of Toronto have been in first-contract negotiations for over a year. Their main outstanding issue is job security. On October 29, they had a 100% strike vote and will be on strike November 15 unless a deal is reached.

This is an extremely small unit of about 40 members. Any support they receive would make a significant difference to their quality of life and working conditions.
