

CUPE 3906 Stewards Network Information & Nomination Form

Welcome! Becoming a Departmental Steward is one of the best ways to become involved in the Union. We look forward to working with you!

What do Stewards do?

Essentially, stewards act as ground-level Union representatives for the local. Here are some of the main activities for which stewards are responsible:

- 1) Distributing information to the members, including Union updates, and GMM and event announcements.
- 2) Representing the interest of their department's members at all relevant meetings (including Stewards' council meetings and GMMs)
- 3) Sitting on the Stewards' Council to identify common issues that arise for our members surrounding issues like Health and Safety, Equity, Grievances, and Benefits.
- 4) Ensuring Union bulletin boards are clean and up-to-date with the most recent information.

How often do Stewards Meet?

Stewards are expected to attend all General Membership Meetings, which occur roughly once per month.

Stewards also attend Stewards Council Meetings, which will be held at least twice per term. One of these stewards' meetings will be focused on providing training to our stewards on Anti-Oppression, Health & Safety, and Union Best Practices.

What are the advantages of becoming a steward?

Beyond serving your department and Union, Stewards gain access to the training mentioned above, and, as per our bylaws, are entitled to a per-term honourarium that is set out in the yearly budget.

Do I need to have Union Experience to be a Steward?

No! Becoming a steward is one the best ways to get involved and learn more about how Unions function. Becoming a steward at 3906 comes with training, and you will never be left to handle any situation on your own.
